Welcoming Our New Development Coordinator

Masorti Olami is excited to introduce Louis Sachs as our new development coordinator.

Having made Aliyah in 2014, Louis worked at the Israel Democracy Institute following his IDF service. He studied music education and history at Simpson College in Iowa and prior to Aliyah taught in the Des Moines Public Schools. He is originally from Chicago, and is active in the musical scene in Israel, singing in choirs and producing an annual Gilbert and Sullivan operetta sing-along.

Louis currently lives in Jerusalem with his wife, Simi.

We wish Louis much luck in his new position!

Louis can be reached at: Louis@masortiolami.org.

Welcoming Our New Director of Zionist Educational Projects & MERCAZ Olami Chapter Liaison

MERCAZ Olami is proud to introduce Nilli Glick Asaf as our Director of Zionist Educational Projects & MERCAZ Olami Chapter Liaison.

Nilli was born and raised in Tel Aviv and has been working in Jewish education for over ten years: Between 2008 and 2010 she was a Jewish Agency Israel Fellow for Hillel at the University of Wisconsin, Madison. Since her return to Israel, she has worked for Hillel Israel, both as a program director at Tel Aviv University and as the Director of Hillel at IDC Herzliya.

Nilli holds an MA in the History of Israel and a BA in the History of Israel and Land of Israel Studies from Bar Ilan University, and is currently working on a second MA in Learning Technologies, at Holon Technological Institute (HIT).

Over the years she participated in various Beit Midrash programs including Kolot Fellows and Beit Midrash Heder MiShelach at the Hartman Institute and more. Today she participates in 248: A new global community action network, organized by Partnership2Gether, Rehovot - -Minneapolis.

Nilli currently lives in Rehovot with her family.

We wish Nilli much luck in her new position!

Nilli can be reached at: Nilli@mercazolami.org
