We strengthen kehillot. We are the network that ensures there are thriving centers of Jewish practice across North America, Israel, and beyond that celebrate both tradition and contemporary life. Together, we demonstrate what an authentic and dynamic Judaism looks like, inspire people to be a part of it, and advance its critical role in the world.

We could not think of a more deserving couple than Jane and Ned Gladstein to be given the Hiddur Mitzvah Award. Their commitment to Jewish continuity - whether close to home or a small town in Europe, Latin America, Russia, Ukraine or Israel - is extremely important to them. What the Gladstein Fellowship has accomplished with JTS Rabbinic students has encouraged these rabbis to be the best that they can be. It has changed the landscape they work in, making Synagogues, Hillels and JCCs more engaging.

Rabbi Sarina Vilas
Rabbi Jonathan Wittenberg
Rabbi Joe Wernik

Exemplary leaders who strengthen Masorti communities throughout the world.

Jane and Ned Gladstein have engaged in Tzerkhei Tzibur, the needs of the community, by generously supporting Masorti Olami, as well as our Midresheet Yerushalayim program in Ukraine.

Rabbi Sarina Vilas, who studied at the Schechter Rabbinical Seminary as part of her rabbinic training at the Seminario Rabinico, has served as a dynamic rabbi and educator in South America since her ordination in 2002.

Rabbi Jonathan Wittenberg, one of the founders of Masorti in the UK, has also published seminal works on Jewish life and thought.

Rabbi Joe Wernik, former Chair of the Schechter Institute Executive Committee and Midresheet Yerushalayim Board, has devoted his life to the growth and spread of Masorti Judaism in Israel and throughout the world.

The Schechter Institutes salute our long-time partner Masorti Olami. May we go together from strength to strength!
